Ibis Care Set Fees

Accommodation

You can choose to pay your accommodation cost as a daily accommodation payment (DAP), a lump sum refundable accommodation deposit (RAD), or a combination of both. You also have the option of paying by drawdown.

Payment Option 1	Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD)	Agreed room price. 2% retention of the RAD per year for up to 5 years.
Payment Option 2	Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP)	A daily accommodation payment is based on the agreed room price and is non-refundable. The DAP is calculated using the current maximum permissible interest rate (MPIR). MPIR is 7.65% from 1 January 2026. DAP will increase with CPI every 6 months.

Payment Option 3	Combination RAD and DAP payment	A combination accommodation payment based on the agreed room price.
Payment Option 4	Drawdown	Same as Combination but the DAP component is taken from your RAD.

Interim Fees

These fees will apply until we receive evidence from Services Australia stating that the outcome of your means assessment confirms that you are a supported or concessional resident.

Interim Non-Clinical Care Contribution Fee	$30/day for Pensioners and part-Pensioners $80/day for non-pensioners
Interim Labelling Contribution Fee	$22.15/day maximum Fee is dependent on the assessment by Services Australia.

More Choices

Our Better Living Choices program is an optional fee for services that go beyond the minimum care and service requirements. The fee is an optional fee for people who choose to receive higher quality everyday living services in permanent or respite residential aged care.

Ibis Care's Better Living Choices program package*	$39/day, or $9.95/day for residents deemed supported or concessional by Services Australia.
